Directors.

—Officer McGinley captured two drunks last evening.

—Business men's meeting in the court, all members present.

—Clerk of the court A. W. Baldwin is confined to his home by sickness.

—Janesville Lodge No. 55, A. F. and A. M., occupy Masonic hall this evening.

—The Baptist church "sale" at Cannon's hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Admission 10 cents.

—Ladies having articles for the "sale" will please bring them to Cannon's hall soon after ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

—Chinese, Japanese and other foreign goods, also a variety of home made articles at the "Sale" at Cannon's hall.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32, will hold a regular meeting this evening, in their hall, 344 block, North Main street.

—Only 25 cents for an oyster supper at Cannon's hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Supper served from six till nine o'clock.

—Mr. Herman Buchholz shipped two handsome carriages to-day, to New Orleans, for service on an omnibus line in that city during the World's exposition. The vehicles are beautiful, and reflect great credit upon the builder.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Colvin, who have had rooms at the Myers house for the past three years, have taken rooms at the Hodgeboom residence on Franklin street, fourth ward, which has been recently leased by Mr. J. F. Morse.

—In the case of the state against Richard Barry, the district attorney filed an information in the municipal court, charging him with larceny of forty dollars, the property of Thomas Welch. The defendant waived the reading of the information, and plead not guilty, and the trial was set for to-morrow at two o'clock.

—If any of our citizens notice anything extraordinary in the actions of Mr. Birn D. Murdoch, the gentlemanly book-keeper of the first national bank, they can just mark it down as a bright eyed girl voicing something less than ten pounds, who made her appearance to add cheer to the fire side of its parents.

—The Mutual Improvement club hold a regular meeting this evening in the parlors of All Souls church. The programme for the evening will consist of a biography by Miss Minnie Drummond; a paper on "The heroes in Carlyle's book," by Mrs. E. F. Warner, and "Carlyle as a biographer," by Mrs. P. C. Cook.

—The amusement event of this week will be the thirty-first annual dance of Water Witch Engine company No. 2, at Apollo hall, on Thursday evening. Smith & Corlies' orchestra will furnish the music, and J. M. Ehringer, Thomas Malton, J. S. Day and John Brown, the floor managers, will see that all who attend enjoy themselves.

—Ben. E. Fackin, in his communication in the morning paper advocating a bridge at the foot of North second street, agitates a subject which interests nearly every citizen of the second ward, and many of the first ward, but we are of the opinion that it will be a very cold day when Mr. Ben. E. Fackin succeeds in gaining the popular voice of the entire city in favor of such an improvement. The only way to carry out the idea is for Ben. E. Fackin to put his hands down into his own pockets and pay for the bridge. That is the quickest road to success.

—"Have you seen the elephant?" "What, the white elephant?" "No, the white elephant on Main street." "Oh yes, I was down looking him over this morning, but what has become of his trainer?" "Well, that is an open question; the latest report says that he has gone to the wilds of Africa to capture another specimen." "Will he return before Christmas?" "Undoubtedly. People are very much attached to him; several very strong cases of attachment have already broken out, with a number of friends yet to hear from. The affection of Janesville people is worth cultivating."

PERSONAL.

—Miss Alice Sherman, of the fourth ward, has gone on a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Iowa.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, of Springfield, Ohio, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Q. O. Barnes, West Milwaukee street.

—Mr. E. A. Joll, piano tuner for Lyon & Healy's music store, of Chicago, is spending a few days in the city the guest of Mr. J. Littlejohn's family.

—Miss Lou Neal, daughter of Captain and Mrs. John Neal, of the first ward, and Miss Laura Chapman, left this morning for Fremont, Nebraska, where they will visit Mrs. Chas. B. Swan, nee Miss Carrie Grubb. They young ladies go by way of Chicago, in which city they will remain until to-morrow.

Rich Holiday Goods.

Stepping into the jewelry establishment of Messrs. Webb & Hall, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, to-day, we were agreeably surprised to see such a large display of rich holiday goods. Looking around their store, we were informed by the gentlemanly proprietors that they now have the largest assortment of goods in their line to be seen in Southern Wisconsin, and after examining their "trays" and large vault, we wondered what firm in the state could possibly have a larger stock. They now make a specialty in holiday goods, and exhibit over one hundred varieties of gold watches, varying in price from $25 to $160; solid silver watches by the bushel, from $12 up to the most costly. This stock of watches embraces all grades of the Elgin and Howard makes, put up in the handsomest gold or silver cases to be had. Ear rings, diamond sets, from $12 up to $250; pins from $12 to $150; studs from $15 to $125; finger rings by the tray load, and in thousands of different patterns—some of the beauties costing from $12 to $175. Of course these costly specimens include the diamonds. They also have the largest exhibit of solid gold watch chains, bracelets, and other jewel ornaments. A full line of Rogers' plated ware, and decorated china, the last of which is a fine line of goods; French cloaks, gold and silver headed canes, in fact anything to be found in a first class jewelry establishment. It would be impossible to give a complete list of the rich and beautiful goods to be seen in this old pioneer establishment, but would advise all our readers to drop in and see for themselves. Messrs. Webb & Hall do not propose to close out, but will dispose of their goods at the very lowest rates.

An Important Project.

There is to be a meeting of the business men of the city this evening to discuss the matter of establishing a business men's association. We learn from investigation that the object of such an organization, is not only to supply a convenient place for appropriate recreation for business men, but to afford them opportunities to consider all questions relating to the interests of the city. There are but few towns of any consequence in the country which do not have their boards of trade, their building associations, or other similar organizations, which are found to greatly add to their prosperity and good government. Janesville is the one marked exception to the rule, and it certainly seems as though this is the proper moment to take a new departure in this direction. There is a depressed condition of things throughout the country—when the revival comes—as it must come—Janesville wants to enlarge her business interests and facilities, and such an association as is now contemplated will offer a medium through which such enlargement may be secured. Every business man in the city who intends making Janesville his home should attend the meeting this evening, and lend his presence, if nothing more, in perfecting an organization of the business interests of our city, that will be beneficial to all our people.

A Cavalry Company.

For some weeks past a number of gentlemen of this city have been making the preliminary arrangements for the formation of an independent cavalry company, and on Saturday evening a meeting was held in the armory of the Bower City Rifles at which a temporary organization was effected by the election of John G. Saxe as president and William Gordon secretary.

After considering the plans and the reports of the committee, the permanent organization was effected as follows:—

President—John G. Saxe.

Recording Secretary—O. H. Brand.

Captain—B. F. Moore.

First Lieutenant—Charles T. McKinnon.

Second Lieutenant—Henry G. Ford.

First Sergeant—William Gordon.

Second Sergeant—Louis Fritz.

Quartermaster Sergeant—O. M. Brand.

First Corporal—L. H. Allen.

Second Corporal—W. H. Kern.

The balance of the officers will be elected at the next meeting, to be held on Wednesday evening of this week, December 10th, at the Rifles' armory at half past seven o'clock. The committee on securing suitable quarters will also report at the same time.

On motion adjourned.

A Burning Chimney.

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock the chimney in the Carlson block, directly opposite the Gazette office, on North Main street, was discovered to be on fire and J. W. Bates and several other parties went to the roof of the block to watch results. The burning soot made a very hot fire, and a perfect cloud of dense smoke. After burning some half hour, the flame from the chimney appeared to increase, and several parties who entered Shaw's restaurant to examine the chimney at the bottom returned to the street, stating that the chimney was situated, was on fire. An alarm of fire was immediately turned in, and in no instant the fire department was at the scene, and ready for service. A second investigation made by the chief engineer and his assistants, demonstrated that the fire was confined to the stove and chimney, both of which were red hot. The fire department remained on watch, ready for action, for about half an hour, when the fire died out and the department returned to their quarters. There was a large crowd of people on the street, but not so large as it would have been had the rigging of the boiler been heard inside the chimneys, which were filled with people attending the morning service.

While going to the fire yesterday, the reel of the No. 1 horse hose cart was broken, so that it will have to be repaired.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer registered 34 degrees above zero. Rain and snow with southwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 36 degrees above zero. Cloudy with southwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register stood 59 and 47 above. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 31 degrees above zero. Cloudy with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 39 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 26 and 30 degrees above zero.

The Rock County Agricultural Society.

On Saturday afternoon, after disposing of the reports of the officers of the Rock county agricultural society, the stockholders voted to pay the secretary $200 per annum and the treasurer $25.

The stockholders then elected the following officers:

1st Vice President—H. D. McKinney.

Secretary—W. T. Vankirk.

Directors—Frank L. Smith, S. C. Van Gilder, Charles Cleland.

The meeting then adjourned.

The officers of the society now stand: President—R. T. Penber.

Vice Presidents—H. D. McKinney and Sath Fisher.

Secretary—W. T. Vankirk.

Treasurer—B. B. Holmstrom.

Directors—Frank L. Smith, S. C. Van Gilder, Charles Cleland, James VanLita and J. E. Gleason.

The society has been very fortunate in selecting officers who always work for the best interests of the society, and at no time have they been more fortunate than at the meeting Saturday afternoon. The chairman, selection of Mr. H. D. McKinney to the position of first vice president was a recognition of his valuable services to the society in times past. He has always taken an active interest in the affairs of the society, and a Rock county fair could hardly be a success without his aid in the management. His "fort," however, is in the horse department, he having a very large moneyed interest in highly bred trotting horses, numbering between forty and fifty head, and is not only an extensive breeder of fine horses, but is known throughout the country as an able writer, under the nom de plume of "Mambrino," on turf and breeding matters. But few men in the west are better posted on turf matters than he, and added to this his gentlemanly and social disposition, always ready to impart the information he has gained through a wide acquaintance with breeders and animals, and his willingness to roll up his sleeves and help along anything which tends to improve the condition of the society, leads us to remark that the society caught the right man in the harness when they elected Henry D. McKinney. The other officers are well known, and will do their part toward making the affairs of the society a success.

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 6th, 1894.

(From Our Occasional Correspondent.)

Special to the Gazette.

EVANSVILLE, WIS., Dec. 6th, 1894.

The laps and mishaps of this village are possibly equal to our sister villages and since our last writing the democrats have held their "praise" meeting, with Col. Bryant on Madison, as speaker. The event was on Wednesday evening the 3d inst. at the new skating rink. A smaller room would have accommodated the "vast" crowd, for there were only about two hundred present all told. Mr. Bryant is not a forcible speaker, but when he did provoke applause it came with such a vim that one would suppose pandemonium had been let loose.

Mr. Stillman Bullard, one of the old settlers of the town of Union, and for a few years past a resident here, died last Tuesday evening, and his funeral was attended at the family residence Thursday afternoon. A large number of old friends, besides numerous relatives were present. Mr. James Bullard, a brother living in Bridgewater, Dakota, was summoned by telegram and he succeeded in time to take a farewell look of the last remains of the oldest member of the family. Mr. Bullard had been in failing health for some time, and about two weeks ago had an attack of paralysis, and all of the immediate friends knew that death had marked him for his victim. A considerable and upright man who has held the position of deacon for years in the Baptist church, has passed away to his reward.

The second lecture in the course by Miss Phoebe Cozzens week before last was listened to by a crowded house, and it all did not like her arguments deduced from the subject, "Woman without a country." They were told some facts worth remembering and the speaker was often greeted with hearty applause.

Mr. Daloes Williams, a sort of jail bird, was arrested a few days since for taking an over coat that it was said belonged to another man. He succeeded in getting bail, and his trial was to come off on Friday, the 5th inst. So early in the morning under the pretext of procuring a needed witness a few miles out of town, he hired a lively rig to bring him in. Court was called and the lawyers were in waiting to try the case, when a young man made his appearance saying that he found a team hitched to his fence, some six miles away from the court room and knowing that it belonged in Evansville he drove it home, and concluded the prisoner had left, as in all probability he did not like the prospects of a second visit to Evansville, and as the overcoat was a useful article on the approach of winter he most naturally walked away leaving his bondsmen $400, in the lurch.

The new skating rink is open three nights in the week and continues to attract the sweeping, whirling skaters, who keep time to the music of the fall concert band.

If there are any weddings on the tapis for Christmas your correspondent is not aware of the fact, but each of the churches are making preparations for the event.

The fog and rain of last Friday was of the kind to make tobacco farmers feel happy with the prospect of early cutting; their crop ready for market, and we undoubtedly saw it in the clouds already contracted rot at prices varying from 12 1/2 to 15 cents.
